SEVEN GUESTS WERE WEARING THE SAME DRESS

During the fashion week, every detail is very important.

Everything is scrutinised: dresses, shoes, make-up and so on and so forth...

On October, the 7th of 2015, during Louis Vuitton's show, seven female guests were wearing the SAME dress. It was a really wrong step for the brand.

Having the same look as the person beside you, is a fear that every woman has. But during a parade, and what is worse at Vuitton's, we call that a tragedy.

Staged situation or simple coincidence? Many people have shared the picture on social networks and very quickly the shot has travelled around the world. This dress has been victim of its popularity.

“I couldn’t encompass all the dresses in one frame, but I’ve counted, they were seven wearing the same dress in total” said the executive editor of Lifestyle Magazine, who has noticed the recurring presence of the design from last year.

It is common that the guests of a show pay tribute to the creator by wearing one of its creations. But this stroke of fate made the journalists laugh in the public.

This funny moment was probably really annoying for the guests who decided to wear this dress and thanks to the internet we can have a look at all those pictures for many years to come!

"AWESOME WEEK-END IN LONDON WITH MY BEST FRIEND !"

Fashion Tips has interviewed for you, two french girls who have been in London for a week-end. They have decided to give us some details and addresses to spend a nice time in this famous capital. Chloé and Fanny have agreed to answer a few questions.

Ladies, did you enjoy your trip in London?

Chloé "It was really amazing, I haven't been in London before, I was so happy to discover this capital".

Fanny "It wasn't my first time in London. I have already been with my family when I was 15, but this is totally different when you are with your best friend! "

Did you try the famous English breakfast?

Chloé "Of course! We went to Vivo in Angel street to have breakfast. I took an English breakfast with a fresh squeezed orange juice. It was delicious but maybe too much for me, I couldn't finish all"

Fanny "I took a porridge and a cup of coffee. I didn't really like the porridge, I know that English people are crazy about that but I think for Frenchies it's weird. But I was really surprised with the coffee, in England they make latte art, It's so beautiful !"

And what was your favourite place in London?

Fanny "We spent a fantastic moment at Sketch. We were like Alice in Wonderland. We took an afternoon tea in the pink room called the Gallery, it was delicious and unfamiliar. The small sandwiches were excellent even if we preferred the finger pastries"

Did you go shopping ?

Fanny "Of course! What a question! We are girls, we love shopping! We went to Oxford Circus and Piccadilly. We fell like Julia Roberts in Pretty Woman. We won't forget this perfect week-end"

Chloe "I've enjoyed a lot of stores like Victoria Secret, River Island, Primark, Boots and Superdrugs as well! And... Oh my god, my credit card has really suffered !"
