

Julien Genaille,

I'm writing this to thank you for your excellent help in the translation of Hacknet Labyrinths to French during March 2017. You not only did excellent work, but were prompt and professional the entire time, and really took a lot of the burden of that entire language's upkeep off of me.

Feel free to use this as a strong recommendation for future employment opportunities. If anyone wishes to contact me about how you did (assuming you send them a copy of this letter), my email is "matt@hacknet-os.com".

Again, thankyou.
